Essay Questions:

Part I (Financial Need): What is your family's annual income? Why can your family not support your college studies? What effort have you made to find work and earn money for college?

Part II (Your hopes and dreams): Why did you choose your course of study? What do you hope to do after you graduate from college? If you are able to complete your university studies, how will the completion of your course of study impact your life?

Part III (Principles and Values) How have you demonstrated in daily living the principles and values listed in the first section of the Criteria for the Josephine & Winfred Brendle Scholarship Fund (see webpage where form was downloaded)?

Funding Conditions:

Scholarship is awarded for tuition and books only. After a scholarship is awarded, recipient must obtain a receipt for each expenditure and provide copies of the receipts to the scholarship program. Failure to do so will render the recipient disqualified for any further assistance.

Certification: I have completed the above application and I agree to the funding conditions in the previous paragraph. Further, I voluntarily agree to pay back 33% of the funds I receive from the Josephine & Winfred Brendle Scholarship Fund after I graduate and secure employment. I will contact the fund and establish a repayment plan.
